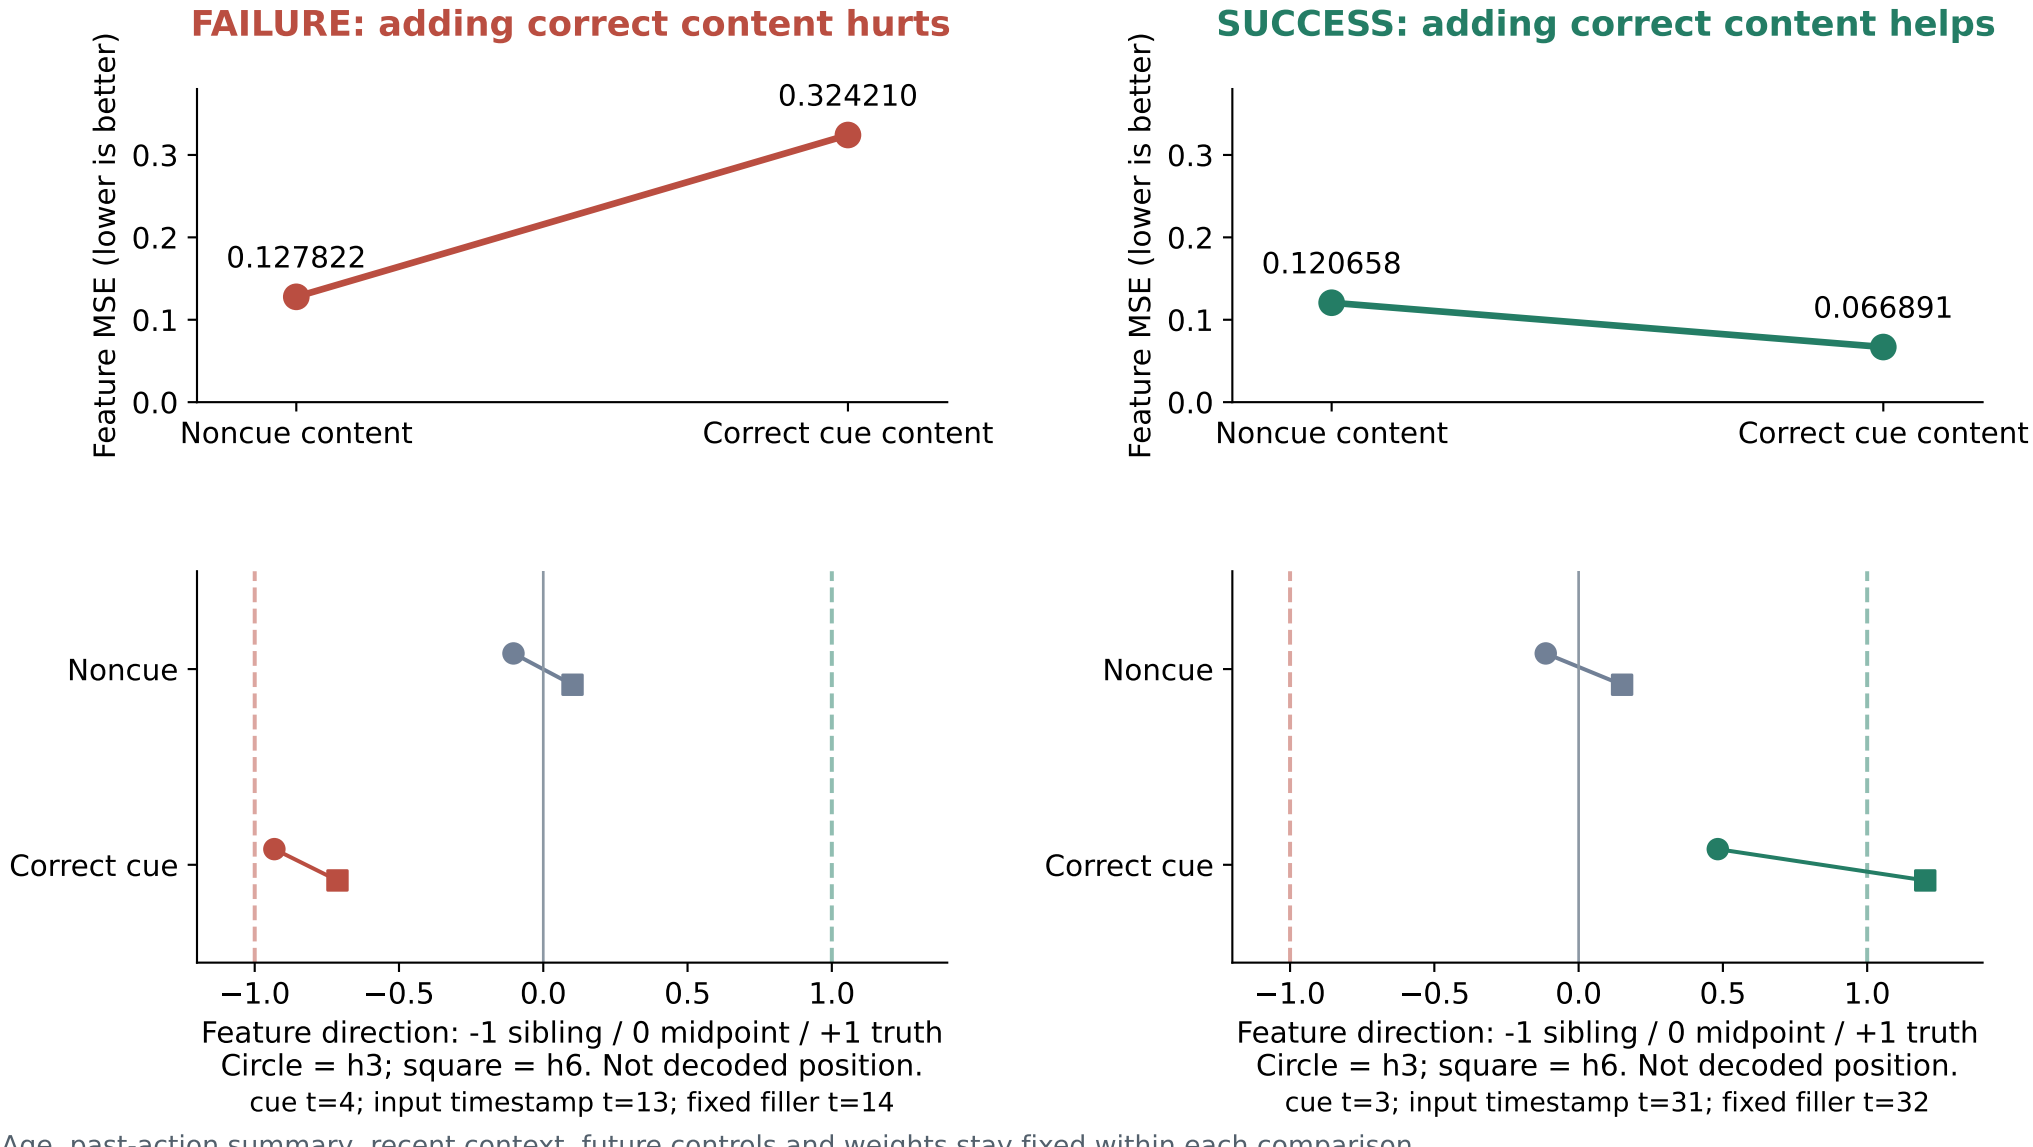
One controlled question, two outcomes: does correct cue content help?



Age, past-action summary, recent context, future controls and weights stay fixed within each comparison.
The two scenes are selected examples, not a matched cross-scene experiment. Hybrids are diagnostic inputs and may be out of distribution.